

CURRICULUM VITAE

Yasuhiro Maehara

Director and Professor, Asian Public Policy Program
School of International and Public Policy, Hitotsubashi University

[Education]

1974                B.A.(Economics), Department of Economics, Hitotsubashi University
1981                Ph.D.(Economics), London School of Economics

[Position held]

1987-1989        Guest Scholar, the Brookings Institution (Washington, D.C.)
1992-1995        Chief Representative, Bank of Japan Washington Office
1998-2000        Advisor to the Governor (Diet Liaison and Public Relations), Bank of Japan
2000-2003        General Manager for the Americas, Bank of Japan New York Office
2003-2005        Advisor to the Governor, Monetary Affairs Department, Bank of Japan
2005                Professor, Asian Public Policy Program, School of International and Public Policy, Hitotsubashi University
2007                Director and Professor, Asian Public Policy Program, School of International and Public Policy, Hitotsubashi University

[Fields of Specialization]

Monetary Policy, Financial Policy, and International Financial Policy

[Areas of Interest]

Monetary and Fiscal Policy in Japan, Financial Sector Reform and Development, and Communication in Monetary Policy.