Applicants who are applicable to (6)(7)(8)(9)(10) of Item 1 above must inform the Office of Admissions of the APPP before applying.
- (3) Official transcripts: issued by the university or college authority.
- (4) Essay written in English (Form B) (Original plus 2 photocopies): in about 2,000 words. This document should also explain their past academic or other work achievements, a major topic proposed for research or study at the program, the proposed methodological approach to the topic, and the planned or contemplated career developments after the program.
- (5) Two letters of reference (Form C): one from the president, dean or academic supervisor of the university or college attended, and another from the head of the department or the equivalent of the ministry/agency where the applicant currently works.
- (6) Official TOEFL score report [University Code No. 8682]

All applicants are required to have a good command of English. TOEFL score of 550 (213 for computer-based test, 79-80 for iBT) or higher is required in principle. Applicants are strongly advised to take TOEFL at least one month before submitting the application. (When TOEFL is not available, an official score report of TOEIC or IELTS is accepted.)

¹ When any of the original documents is written in a language other than English or Japanese, its translation in English or Japanese must be attached.

(7) A letter of endorsement from an institution which an applicant belongs to (Form D)

Should the applicant apply through a scholarship sponsor, the format of endorsement could be the one from the scholarship application.

(8) Official health certificate by a hospital or a medical doctor (Form E)

(9) Non-refundable application fee of Yen 30,000 (see Form F) (exemption or payment by scholarship sponsor may be available in some cases: please contact the Program Manager before sending in the application fee)

(10) A photocopy of the page(s) of the applicant's passport, to indicate his/her name, photo, passport number, date of birth, etc.

(11) A self-addressed envelope of a standard postal size (23.5cm x 12cm) for the admission decision (25grams) should be included, together with registered mail stamps (Yen 392). Those applying from overseas do not have to include the envelope or stamps. Such expenses may be collected upon enrollment.

Applications should be sent to the following address by registered mail.

Asian Public Policy Program
School of International and Public Policy
Hitotsubashi University
National Center of Science
2-1-2 Hitotsubashi, Chiyoda-ku
Tokyo 101-8439

Applicants applying under sponsored Scholarships must be selected by each Scholarship Sponsor prior to APPP selection. As eligibility, schedule, and process are different among Scholarships, applicants should contact Office of Admissions, the Asian Public Policy Program as early as possible, and not later than October 31, 2016.

Applications for the program must be submitted in their original forms, unless otherwise stated, during the period shown below together with the non-refundable application fee of Yen 30,000, for the program beginning in October, 2017. All documents, except TOEFL scores, which should be sent directly from ETS, must be submitted in one envelope to the Office of Admissions.

For candidates applying from overseas, you are strongly advised to contact the Program Manager of the Asian Public Policy Program well before the application period regarding application.

APPP Application Fee Period

IMF Scholarship (JISPA) Applicants: from April 3, 2017 to May 8, 2017

JDS Scholarship Applicants: from April 3, 2017 to May 8, 2017

Other Applicants: from September 1, 2016 to May 8, 2017

※Again, applicants should contact Office of Admissions, the Asian Public Policy Program as early as possible, and not later than October 31, 2016.

(Notes for scholarship recipients)

When a candidate who has been awarded a Monbu-kagakusho scholarship applies for the program, application fee is exempted if a Certificate of Monbu-kagakusho Scholarship Student is included in his/her application. Please check with the Asian Public Policy Program's Program Manager to confirm eligibility for this exemption.

Recipients of the Japan-Asia IMF scholarship, JDS Scholarship and other sponsored scholarships with partnership arrangements are required to consult with their respective sponsors and contact Program Manager of the Asian Public Policy Program regarding application fee and submission of their applications. For those wishing to apply for MEXT or ADB scholarship, candidates are requested to check with the Program Manager as different application period and procedures would be applied.

4. Selection

The selection will be made on the basis of the above submissions, namely, transcripts, recommendation letters, essays, TOEFL scores and a letter of endorsement and medical certificates, as well as on the basis of interviews as deemed necessary. Successful candidates are expected to have good command of English with a TOEFL score of 550(CBT: 213, iBT: 79-80) or higher in principle.

Interviews with applicants may also involve math and English tests, and applicants will be informed of the schedule after May 11 via e-mail.

For Japanese residents, interviews will in principle be conducted as follows:

Date: June 5 (Monday), 2017 10:00 – 17:00 hrs (subject to change)
Venue: Asian Public Policy Program
School of International and Public Policy
Hitotsubashi University
National Center of Sciences
2-1-2, Hitotsubashi, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo 101-8439
(5 minutes' walk from Takebashi Station of Tozai Subway Line).

For overseas residents such interviews may be conducted in the country of their residence or through video/telephone conference. For those applicants who are applying in conjunction with sponsored scholarships that have partnership arrangements with APPP, these may take place prior to the admissions closure date in conjunction with the selection process for the scholarships.

In the interview, applicants will be asked to discuss issues relating to his/her short essay and other things.

5. Admission Decisions

Admission decisions will be made by the day shown below. All applicants will be notified as soon as possible of the results of the decisions via e-mail and by post, either directly or via your agent in Japan in case of sponsored scholarships.

Admission Decisions

IMF and JDS Scholarship Applicants: May 18 (Thursday), 2017

Other Applicants: June 22 (Thursday), 2017

6. Enrollment Registration

The enrollment registration must be done between August 28 and September 1, 2017.

The matriculation fee payment in the amount of Yen 282,000 must be made at the time of enrollment. The payment of university tuition fee in the amount of 267,900 (as of April, 2016), representing one half of the annual tuition of Yen 535,800², and covering the October-March term must be made by the end of October 2017.

7. Miscellaneous

- (1) All matters relating to the application and admission will be handled by the Office of Admissions, Asian Public Policy Program, Hitotsubashi University. All inquiries must be made by e-mail (app-admissions@ics.hit-u.ac.jp) or fax (+81-3-4212-3146).
- (2) For scholarship possibilities, applicants are expected to contact the Asian Public Policy Program well prior to the official application period.
- (3) After the application has been turned in, the applicant is not allowed to change the program to which he/she is applying. The student is not allowed to take the seminar course offered by a program other than by the program for which the application has been made.
- (4) All the papers submitted for the application become the official record of Hitotsubashi University and will not be returned to applicants. The application fee is non-refundable.
- (5) All submissions must be in original, except otherwise noted above.
- (6) For interviews, the applicant must bring the invitation letter sent by the university authorities.
- (7) All submissions must be typed, unless otherwise stated. When, for any reason, hand-written documents are submitted, they must be written in roman, using black or blue ball-point pens.
- (8) Applicants with physical disabilities must consult with the Office of Admissions prior to the application, so that necessary considerations for facilitating them in classrooms, etc. might be arranged.

² The university fee is subject to periodic changes by Hitotsubashi University.

(B)

Please write a short essay in about 2,000 words, covering the following questions. This essay is one of the most important parts of your application, as it will form a basis for the selection. It should be word-processed on separate sheets of paper, and should be signed and dated by you:

- (1) What study/research and professional experience have you had to date? Has your experience satisfied your intellectual and professional interests and ambitions? Do you feel you need additional study/training? If so, in which field?
- (2) Why are you applying to this program? What do you see in the program that is likely to help you attain your intellectual and professional objectives and goals?
- (3) If accepted in the program, what subject of study/research would you like to pursue? How is it related to your field of intellectual and professional interest? What analytical method or methodological framework do you think would be most appropriate for the study/research of the above subject? Have you done any work on it to date?
- (4) How do you envisage your professional career developments after the program? What would you like to be doing in, say, 10 years' time?
- (5) Choose a particular policy issue in your field of interest that is of concern to you, and make a brief assessment of the issue from a viewpoint of a policy maker.
