

ASIA AND THE WORLD ECONOMY:

REAL INCOMES

PRICE LEVELS

GROWTH

INEQUALITY

PRODUCTIVITY

AND

OVER THE LAST FIFTY YEARS
50

Presentation
+
Chat over Lunch

Using evidence from large scale databases, ICP, PWT, and UQICD, this talk provides a quantitative assessment of five decades of economic performance of Asian economies, highlighting contributions to global growth, reduced inequality and poverty, and the implications of productivity and demographic shifts for the world economy.

30 OCTOBER
THURS | 12:40 - 13:40

HYBRID

FACE-TO-FACE

Room 517,
Faculty Bldg. II
West Campus

REGISTRATION

Deadline 29 October, 3 p.m.

ONLINE (ZOOM)

Registered participants will receive the Zoom link via email the day before.

Please register via the URL or
QR code.

<https://forms.office.com/r/OA7FHJYkuF>

PRESENTER

D.S. PRASADA RAO, FASSA

Hitotsubashi Institute for Advanced Study

Professor Emeritus
The University of Queensland

Bring your own lunch. Coffee and snacks will be served.

The HIAS Brown Bag Seminar is a seminar series hosted by Hitotsubashi Institute for Advanced Study (HIAS). The seminar series aims to promote interaction between HIAS researchers, faculty members, and students university-wide. HIAS, with its 10 research centers, will continue to strive to function as a hub to facilitate active research collaboration throughout the University.

Hitotsubashi International Centre of Research and Training of Economic Measurement

CONTACT

Hitotsubashi Institute for Advanced Study
Research Services Office

✉ hias-info@ad.hit-u.ac.jp